FOREWORD

After most books have been read once or twice, they have served their purpose and are no longer of any value. This book, however, is very different. It is filled with many unforgettable moments that were shared by the student body of Carrollton High.

The Cavalier teams once again succeeded in making us very proud of them in all sports.

Pep assemblies and Homecoming week did their part in giving us a little diversion from our studies.

The Senior Honors English class did a commendable job on their play "Pygmalion".

The teachers and administration, the ones who keep the ball rolling, we owe them many many thanks.

Yes, all these things have done their part in making our yearbook a book which will always be treasured. One can be sure that this is not a book which will, after having been looked through once or twice, sit on the shelf and soon be forgotten.

There are things in this book that can never happen again in that same way. These memories will always be here in this book which can never be replaced in value. The longer you have this book the richer you will be.

Above; The Queen and her Court shown with their escorts at the Homecoming Dance.

When I was crowned, the world around me seemed to whirl. It was like something out of a fairy tale book. I didn't realize that such a thing could have happened to me and it's still hard to believe.

The only thing that I heard the announcer say was my first name. Everything else was drowned out because my father huddled me into his arms.

It was the happiest day of my life, and a day that I will never forget. Most important, I will never forget how proud my parents were when I was crowned. Just to see them smile made my heart burst.

I would like to thank everyone for being so nice to me. The night seemed to fly by, but it will be in my heart for many, many years to come.

MALION

"Pygmalion", George Bernard Shaw's best-known and best-loved writing, is a satirical comedy poking fun at the social classes. Professor Higgins, a teacher of phonetics, is Shaw's Pygmalion. He molds an illiterate flower girl, named Eliza, into an acceptable upper class lady.

The Honors English Class of Carrollton High put on Shaw's remarkable play with a very outstanding performance. Congratulations on a job well done.

J. Spencer and P. Laatsch put on a lively performance.

Not all the work went into acting as shown here with T. Mehalski.

Take that ... and that ... and that."

Quill and Scroll

International Honorary Society for High School Journalists

Each year Mr. Ellsworth, yearbook and newspaper advisor, hand-picks new members for Quill and Scroll Society. These people are members of the yearbook and newspaper staffs. To be on Quill and Scroll one must be in the upper one-third of their class and meet with the requirements set up by the international society. This year the members are, STANDING, L to R; Ann Somerville, Jim Florczak, Randy Foerster, Fred Dietiker, Robin Boldt. SITTING, L to R; Cathy Rogoza, Joyce Jones, Rosalie Rousseau, Judi Kolak and Christine Schultz.

ACADEMIC HONORS

Being an exchange student is a wonderful experience. Each year students from Carrollton are chosen from the junior class and sent to European, Asian and South American countries. The students going abroad this year are, L to R, Sue Bader, Germany, Bonnie Nowaczyk, Finland, and Chris McPeak, Holland. The newly chosen exchange students are standing in front of a display set up by Sandy Egerer, an exchange student from last year. Sandy went to Utrecht, Holland.
